The Roadmap Towards Integrated Reporting

February 2015
From ethics triple bottom line towards integrated reporting

Implementing a CSR data collection system

First Code of Ethics
First Sustainability Report
First GRI-G3 Sustainability Report
First Group Sustainability Report (consolidating Endesa and OGK-5)
First GRI-EUSS Sustainability Report
First GRI G3.1 Sustainability Report
CSR KPIs in Annual Report 2011
Materiality analysis
Toward Integrated Report

Reporting standards
- Global Reporting Initiative
- AccountAbility
- LEAD Participant

Presence in global networks
- GRI-G4 Consortium

Sustainability Report 2013 One Company One Report
Sustainability at Enel: from rethinking reporting to innovating business processes, towards a new business model

SUSTAINABILITY INTEGRATED IN BUSINESS PROCESSES

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

Materiality Analysis

CSR/CSV PROJECTS

REPORTING

Consolidating Sustainability objectives in Group Strategic Plan

Integrating financial and non-financial data collection process through DATA COLLECTION SYSTEM
Enel materiality matrix 2013

Re-thinking sustainability strategy through materiality
Starting from Sustainability Report 2015, quantitative data will be collected using Data Collection System through Primo CSR. Then a DM (Disclosure Management) module will be implemented to report qualitative information.
Enel’s presence in the main Sustainability Indexes

Dow Jones Sustainability Indexes
- 2002: Admission
- 2004: Confirms for the 11th year running, Score 87/100, Gold Class

FTSE4Good
- 2007: Withdrawal owing acquisition of nuclear power plants
- 2010: FTSE4Good Policy Committee draws up criteria for nuclear sector
- 2011: Enel is the only utility readmitted
- 2013: Confirms semi-annual review in September, Score tbd

CDP
- 2014 - 2015: Admitted to CDP CDLI Italy, Score 98/100

Enel is also a constituent of STOXX ESG Leaders indices and Euronext Vigeo World 120 – Europe 120 and Eurozone 120
At December 31, 2013 there were 117 Socially Responsible Investors (SRI) in Enel’s share capital (108 in 2012), which represent about 15.6% of the identified institutional shareholders (14.6% in 2012) corresponding to 1.65 billion €.